Floyd F. Krohn

Floyd Forrest Krohn died Jan. 31, 2011.

Floyd was born Jan. 13, 1923, in Camas, and attended grade school and high school in Washougal. He worked at the paper mill, drove a bus for the Camas School District, and was the transportation supervisor for 27 years. He had a farm in Washougal and later moved to Vancouver. He loved airplanes and learned to fly with Wally Olson. Through the years, people would recognize him as the bus driver who drove them to school, or the pilot and instructor who taught them to fly. He was the owner/operator of Krohn Flying Service for many years. Aside from the family he loved, he was most fond of baseball, especially the Yankees. He liked candy, cookies, maple bars, drum sticks, bacon, and biscuits and gravy,

He was preceded in death by his sister, Donna; first wife, Shirley Pawsey; mother, Fern; son, Jode; grandson, David; and second wife of 55 years, Zaida Dunlap Krohn.

His is survived by his son, Steve Krohn and his wife Claudia Clark Krohn; daughter, Cindy Krohn; daughter-in-law, Beth (Donaugh) Krohn Gilbert; sister-in-law, Dorris Dunlap Long; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

At Floyd's request, there will be no public services. Hamilton-Mylan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations can be made to the Humane Society.

Sign the online guest book at www.columbian.com/obits.